The Selection of a

Piano

is an important matter, not only because the purchase represents considerable money, but if a right piano is selected 'tis a joy forever in the home, while if a mistake is made in buying a wrong piano dissatisfaction takes the place of contentment, and the piano is a constant unpleasant reminder of money poorly invested.

No Mistake Can Be Made In purchasing one of the Celebrated Byrne Pianos.

They are unexcelled in tone, perfect in construction and made in a large variety of case designs in mahogany, walnut and oak.
